

Year: 1

Term: Autumn 2

Whole School Theme: Mini topic 2

Dancing Spy

Theme Overview

“Dancing Spy” is a history based unit, with a focus on courage, commitment, creativity and community, integrating the subjects of PSHE, drama and dance. We will focus on the story of Josephine Baker, a black American entertainer who fought hard against racism and segregation. We will look at her inspiring and challenging story.

PSHE

Surprises and secrets

Who can help?

Harold has a bad day.

It's not fair!

Hook into Learning:

red vs yellow

Topic Finale:

Fact file on Josephine Baker

MATHS

Subtraction

- Number line
- Crossing off
- How many left
- Finding a part

Add and subtract 1 or 2

Eight fact families

2D shapes

3D shapes

ENGLISH

Ossiri

- Letters
- Diary entry
- Instruction writing – recipes
- Story writing

RE

Christmas story

Meaningful gifts

SCIENCE

Seasonal changes

- Autumn to winter
- Winter
- Animals in winter

PE

Dance

- Explore basic body actions
- Movement patterns
- Create, practice and repeat their own sequence of movements
- Evaluate their movements.

HISTORY

Josephine Baker

- Retell the story of her life
- Explain what she was famous for
- To explain why she is an inspirational historical figure
- Ordering key events in chronological order.

Music

Christmas performance

COMPUTING

Pictograms

Lego builders